

Your child's school report

Information for parents

You will receive a written report from your child's school at the end of the school year. This report will give you information on your child's progress and achievement in school in four key areas. These are:

A. your child as a learner	B. your child's social and personal development
C. your child's learning across the curriculum	D. your key role in supporting your child's learning

Aspects of the report	The report may include your child as a learner	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• how your child likes learning in school</li> <li>• how your child works with other children, or on his/her own</li> <li>• how your child keeps trying at work, even when it is hard</li> <li>• how well your child works in school or at home</li> </ul>
your child's social and personal development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• if your child appears happy in school</li> <li>• how he/she behaves</li> <li>• how he/she gets on with other children in the classroom and in the playground</li> </ul>
